“Home Game” Movie Screening, Discussion and Reception

7:30 p.m.

Service

9:00 p.m.

Featuring Cantor Laurel Barr
and our High Holiday Choir

“Home Game” is a documentary about the teenage years, growing up and the youth who were forced to deal with a confusing reality that potentially harmed their whole system of beliefs and values.

“Home Game” focuses on the human aspect of a political event to remind us all that regardless of politics we are all people who are supposed to care about one another.

College Connection

The Women of Temple Emanu El are gathering our college students' addresses so they can send them greetings and goodies a couple of times during the year—especially around the holidays.

Please assist us by providing your childrens school addresses. E-mail or call Lisa Denker, denkermon@gmail.com / 440-914-0400.

WOTEE has no intention of nagging the kids—just a friendly delivery from home once or twice during this school year.

Thanks for your cooperation!

Brotherhood is selling the 2009-2010
Our Town and All Around Dining Directory
$28.00 (checks required)

Last year, the directory provided super savings at over 185 finer dining restaurants with savings of $10 or more. 28 Ohio Wineries were featured. There were over 400 two for one or 50% off offers at fast food giants and neighborhood favorites. More than 62 free rounds of golf and other activities are available!

Call Dennis Malkin, 440-897-8022 for buying information.

Rabbi Alan Singer Green Lectureship

October 30 through November 1
featuring Scholar-in-Residence

Rabbi Elana Zaiman

Rabbi Zaiman is the first woman rabbi from a family spanning three generations of rabbis. She holds a BA in religion and psychology from George Washington University and a MSW from Columbia University School of Social Work. Elana also received MA degrees in Judaic Studies and Hebrew Literature, as well as rabbinic ordination from The Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

For five years Elana served as a rabbi at Manhattan's Park Avenue Synagogue. She has also been the program director and acting director at Tufts University Hillel in Massachusetts, and program associate and associate scholar-in-residence at Brandeis-Bardin Institute in California.

Currently, Elana is the chaplain for the aged at The Caroline Kline Galland Home and The Summit at First Hill in Seattle, WA. She travels throughout the United States and Canada serving as a scholar-in-residence and visiting rabbi.

Publications in literary journals, anthologies, and Jewish newspapers include: "Writing Ethical Wills," in Rayonot, A Journal of Ideas; "Gabriel," in American Letters and Commentary; "Bedtime," in The Kid Turned Out Fine, (ed. Paula Ford-Martin); "The Lessons Of Exile," in The Jewish Week (New York); and "Remembering is a Blessing," in The Jewish Transcript (Seattle).

The Alan Singer Green Lectureship was established in 1973 as a tribute to Rabbi Green on his 65th birthday, and to provide for the annual appearance of a renowned scholar at Temple Emanu El, with the event being open to the community. Watch for more information coming soon.
