TAKE PART IN THE 2011 GREATER CLEVELAND JEWISH POPULATION STUDY

www.jewishcleveland.org/18minutes

The Jewish Federation of Cleveland is undertaking a thorough study of Jewish Cleveland to assess community needs and is counting on your participation – please take the time to complete the survey if you are called.

Jewish Policy and Action Research (JPAR), a professional survey company, will conduct the study. Interviewing will take place beginning mid-March through June to complete 1000 anonymous and confidential interviews. Results of the study will be made available to any individual or organization wishing to use it to advance their planning.

For more information, visit www.jewishcleveland.org/18minutes, call 216-593-2812 or email fsfishbach@jcfccleve.org.

Adult Education Classes Sundays, March 6—May 8 (No class March 20, 27, April 3, 24)

9:00 - 10:15 am
“Biblical Hebrew”
with Rabbi Denker, continued

10:20 - 11:30 am
“Nu? What’s New?” with Sue Arnold
Things are happening all over the world that affect our Jewish family. We will examine and explore current events and topics that deal with our Jewish brethren everywhere. If there a topic or subject that you’d like to explore, bring it with you. We will begin this course with a discussion of “The Women of the Wall” in Jerusalem.

11:30 - 12:45 pm
“Kabbalah: An Introduction to the Mystical Side” with Rabbi Denker
Judaism is a mixture of the rational and the mystical. Begin your exploration of the mystical aspect of our faith and the quest for knowing what God is really like. Texts from the Zohar and other sources will be used. No Hebrew, Aramaic or prior knowledge is needed.
