New Year's Resolutions – a poem for Rosh Hashanah

~ by Rick Lupert

Rosh Hashanah
The New Year is coming and
I make these promises –

I will invest in apples.

I will open negotiations with the bees
to make sure they have what they need to continue their work.

I will set foot inside a synagogue.
(Maybe both feet.)

I will not judge a shofar by its length.

When the sun sets on Fridays
I will not treat it like any other day.

I will learn how to pull the first tissue
out of the box without destroying it and the next five. (That may not be specific to Rosh Hashanah but it's on my mind
and there must be something in there about improving one's skills.)

I will give to those who need and ask for help when I am the one who needs.

I will drive on the road like I am
the least important person on the road.

I will spend more time outside and as much time downstairs as I do upstairs
so neither gets jealous.

I will bake more quiches with my son.

I will love the ones I vehemently disagree with so much.

I will take all the money I make from investing in apples and donate it to bees
or to charity, or to a bee charity.

I will try not to break these promises
even though a document is coming on Yom Kippur which tells me I probably will.

I will do the best
I can.

Mussar Lunch n' Learn: Humility

In Memory of Larry Mattes

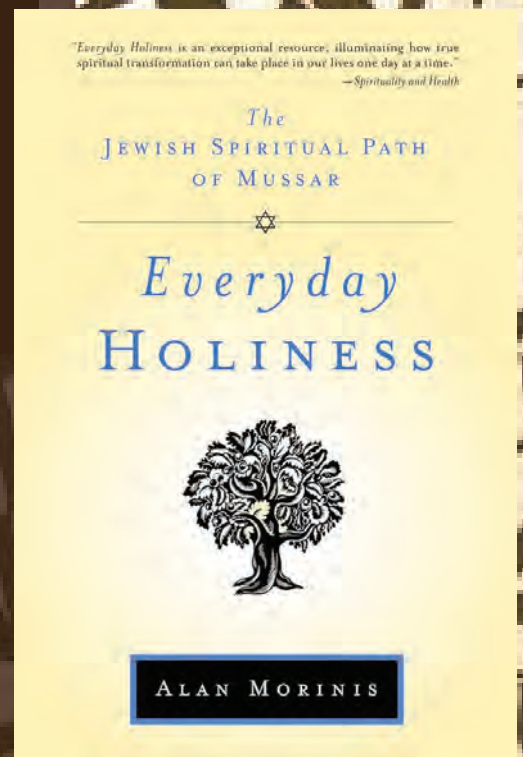

September 17th | 12 - 1pm

"Mussar is a Jewish spiritual study and practice that gives us the tools to live more meaningful and holy lives. These monthly gatherings will examine foundational Mussar middot (values) through text study, group discussion and daily practice."

Monthly discussions will be organized by Middot (values) from Alan Morinis' book "Everyday Holiness"

This month's will be Humility (Chapter 7)
Rabbi Matt suggests reading the chapter prior to the lunch n'learn but it is not required to be a part of the discussion.

- ★ Taught by Rabbi Matt Cohen
- ★ Bring your own lunch
- ★ Beverages provided by TEE Brotherhood
- ★ Open to All TEE Members
- ★ RSVP to Ashley Walker, awalker@teecleve.org

Aligning Your Values with How You Vote

Online Donations

Donations can be made online through our website home page. Click on the link to make a donation in honor or in memory of a loved one. (Do Not try to Log In) Please note that in order to complete your online donation, you will need the recipient's email address. If you do not have an email address, you can still make a donation by contacting Louis Innenberg, 216.454.1217 or linnenberg@teecleve.org.

Thank You!

We are so grateful to all of you who make donations to our funds. Your donations support TEE programming throughout the year, help provide for local and national causes that are dear to our Jewish values, and assist members of our congregation who might require extra support. It is your continued care that sustains our missions and makes all the difference.

A GENTLE REMINDER ABOUT STAYING CONNECTED

In today's world, we are fortunate to be able to stay connected so easily. At the same time, being reachable 24/7 can make it challenging to maintain healthy boundaries between our work and personal lives.

Some members of our staff have shared their cell phone numbers as a convenience and as a way to be available when needed. We simply ask that, when possible, please be mindful of when and how you reach out by phone or text.

There are, of course, times when a call or text to Rabbi Matt or Renee Delafronconi is absolutely appropriate...especially when something is timely or requires their immediate attention. For questions, requests, or matters that can wait, an email during regular business hours is often the best way to reach us and allows our staff to respond thoughtfully when they are available.

We are grateful for your understanding and for helping us create a culture that respects both accessibility and personal time. Thank you for being mindful of our staff and the many responsibilities they carry in serving our Temple Emanu El community.

Every house has a heartbeat.
Filled with family dinners,
stories, & laughter around the table.
Our synagogue is a home, too...
a place where songs become prayers,
strangers become friends,
traditions become memories,
& every generation belongs.

In This House,

We sing. We celebrate. We grow.
Welcome Home.

Experience the High Holy Days with

Temple Emanu El

2026 ★ 5787

★ Admittance

NEW THIS YEAR: We are introducing a new check-in process for all High Holy Day services and programs. Rather than mailing admission tickets, all attendees will check in upon arrival at a welcome station located outside our main entrance. The main entrance will be the only entrance for all High Holy Day services and events.

Our greeters will welcome you and ask for your first and last name to complete the check-in process. This new system helps us maintain a safe and secure environment while eliminating your need to remember and bring paper tickets. As we implement this new process, we will appreciate your patience and understanding. We encourage everyone to arrive early to allow time for check-in.

If you would like to bring guests who are not included with your membership, admission may be available with advance registration. Contact Renee, 216.408.1030, prior to the High Holy Days to discuss your request. For the safety of our community, all pre-registered guests will be asked to present a VALID photo ID upon arrival.

★ Parking

We suggest you arrive 30 minutes prior to services. Enter through the Brainard Road entrance. Orange Village Police will direct the flow of traffic.

★ Child Care

We encourage you to worship as a family, but we do provide childcare for children aged 18 months to age 6 years in Classrooms 105/106 on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur mornings.

★ Livestream

All services & programs are in-person, but if you are unable to join us, please use these directions to view virtually. For all streamed services and events, go to the homepage of our website. (www.teecleve.org) and click on "Participate" at the top right of the page. Scroll down to the bottom and click on the large green button "Stream." The stream will automatically start in the center of the page. We are currently not password protecting our stream. (Also note, this is subject to change, in which case, we will email out the password ahead of time.)

★ Accessibility and Fragrance Free Environment

To help ensure that everyone can participate comfortably in our High Holy Day services and events, we have designated seating areas in the Sanctuary for those using wheelchairs, walkers, or other mobility devices. If you require accessible seating or assistance upon arrival, let one of our ushers know, and they will be happy to help.

We also kindly ask that you refrain from wearing perfume, cologne, or other heavily scented products when attending services. Many members of our community have sensitivities or allergies to fragrances, and your consideration helps create a welcoming and comfortable environment for all.

Book Of Memory

2026★5787

As we prepare our hearts for the High Holy Days, we invite you to honor the memory of your dearly departed by including their names in Temple Emanu El's Book of Memory for 5787. This cherished booklet is used during our Yom Kippur Yizkor service, allowing our community to remember and reflect together.

Your participation is a meaningful tribute to those we have lost, while also helping to sustain Temple Emanu El. A donation of $18 per name is requested, with a customary minimum contribution of $54.

This year, you also have the opportunity to create a lasting tribute in our Memorial Garden. Donations of $500 or more will include your loved one's name listed on a Memorial Garden plaque, and donations of $1,000 or more will provide for the planting of a tree in their memory.

To ensure inclusion in this year's Book of Memory, please return your completed form and donation by Friday, September 11.

Questions about the Book of Memory, or to view your past submission, may be directed to Ashley at AWalker@teecleve.org. Questions regarding the Memorial Garden should be directed to Renee at ReneeD@teecleve.org.
